Give A Gift. Caterina Pellegrini is a young Venetian musicologist hired to find the rightful heir to an alleged treasure concealed by a once-famous, but now almost forgotten, baroque composer.

All I gleaned from this narrative was that Caterina, protagonist, had a hugea
Leon really didn't flesh out any of the secondary characters, all except a drunken romanian seemed pretty lost in two dimensionality. Please see my reviews, a two star is a rarity for me to ever give

This scene gets a 5 but the process, more like a 3. But if you have never read any Donna Leon, please, please! Leon, not sure if I'll be
