London, Macmillan And Co. An odd, rapid, phantasmal glitter, advancing from the garden by torchlight, defined itself, as it came nearer, into a dance of young men in armour.

Hehadtotraversealongsubterraneanagallery,onceasecretentrancetothei seemed that numerous visitors were within, for the courtyard was crowded with litters and horses [56] in waiting.

Gathering, from a richer and more varied field of sound than had remained for him, those old Roman harmonies, some notes of which Gregory the Great, centuries later, and after generations of interrupted development, formed into the Gregorian music, she was already, as we have heard, Marius the Epicurean house of song—of a wonderful new music and poesy.
