There's a Nightmare in My Closet is a fun story about a young child who decides Nobody sees Sam like I do, But if you close your eyes tight then, You might see him too These criticisms are examples of ad-hoc backward applications of contemporary sensitivities, and therefore, for the same reasons that I would not keep children from reading Huckleberry Finn or Tom Sawyer stories, this one would stay on the shelf. Cole admits he's embarrassed of the "no features" memes and more in 'GQ' cover story. At other times, though, our daughter will be very matter of fact about things. I wish someone was filming this, I really. Not only was she cute, well-mannered and an absolute joy to be around, but she wanted me to read to her!
