In this seminar we will examine how tragedies represent various types of conflict. Balzac was not only an immoderate consumer of coffee; he was also a conversant gastronome and an enlightened connoisseur of coffee. Purchase access Subscribe to the journal. Appleton and Company, The Holograph Letters. Published by Actessud The goal will be to discern these key features and use them to deconstruct portraits across these three subjects, to analyze convincingly how portraits negotiate the problems of representing identity both that of the portraitist and the subject according to their engagement with social, psychological, and artistic practices and expectations.
