I ask that you would trust me now, I will not let you down, Then, when your trials
When Flowers Reign The time of peace. His feet, oh, those beautiful feet Which at the age of twelve Made Him stand before those educated. There's no other friend like He.
That He too, with pleasure His fruit may review: Is the Man in the glory a stranger
Thou wilt receive me And welcome me above; This sunshine which now fills me
Is Thine own smile of love.
