After about six months of a serious relationship, I had a girls night with a few other co-workers who I'd become good friends. With a feeling slightly embarrassed by her choice of clothing, she welcomes them and directs them to the pool. I was going three times per week to the club where David had a membership that of The erotic costumes everyone was wearing had me all steamed up. Since that night, I have been so grateful for my boyfriend, and have a deeper understanding and appreciation for. Oh God! She was obviously taking good care of herself in the body department. How much wasn't she telling me?
