Describes everything from children bleeding out to rape and murder. Mugezi's watchful, sly intelligence and acerbic, sometimes lacerating tone dominate the novel, in which his Abyssinian Chronicles of age keeps pace with the country's. Contents: Main.

The story takes a while to get into it and it's pretty long, but I recommend it, e
The book, at times, became too gritty and sour for me, shockingly Abyssinian Chronicles and raw. While he's not super likable to me he taught me a lot about the survivalist values of a Ugandan. Moses Isegawa.
