Wernher von Braun - Wikipedia

Wernher Magnus Maximilian Freiherr von Braun (March 23, - June 16, ) was a German-American aerospace engineer and space architect. He was the leading figure in the development of rocket technology in Germany and a pioneer of rocket technology and space science in the United States. This much less peaceful aspect of von Braun's "drive for space" has been.

Harlow Michael Heidelberger Alfred H. In the first half of his life, von Braun was a nonpracticing, "perfunctory" Lutheran, whose affiliation was nominal and not taken seriously. WernhervonBraunpassedthemsoclosethathewasalmosttouchingthecorpses Guy Morand, a French resistance fighter who was a prisoner in Dora, testified in that after an apparent sabotage attempt, von Braun ordered a prisoner to be flogged, [44] while Robert Cazabonne, another French prisoner, claimed von Braun stood by as prisoners were hanged by chains suspended by cranes. But, when we as a society choose to focus solely on the good things he achieved we do a disservice to the enslaved Jews who built the rockets he designed, and the innocent men women and children of England who felt the wrath of those weapons. There, he had much Dr. Space: The Life of Wernher von Braun influence on the space program and left NASA in to join Fairchild Industries as vice president of engineering and development in Germantown, Maryland.
