La frantumaglia. The note, and the unnamed editor who wrote it, highlights the maxim and imbues it with pedagogical significance and historical immediacy.

The light of faith is unique, since it is capable of illuminating every aspect

The Fathers described faith as a body, the body of truth composed of various members, by analogy with the body of Christ and its prolongation in the Church. The application of Mannerism to music is, for the author, a seminal idea, on that confirms the primacy of that art in the history of ideas.
