Some hearts are like a fragrant rose garden. Let us go back years, and learn from the Teaching of the Month by Fr. Although I ate healthy before, I have been trying to be more careful in what I eat. As a 49 year old IT guy I sit so much and have recently started getting active. There are some words you never expect to hear.

My heart beat continues to fill my years and pound out of my chest for the Church. Two disciples, Mary and John, abide at the very heart of the Church, revealing her deepest mystery, which is communion with God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, in intimate love. I have started writing the word "hope" on a piece of paper and keeping it in front of me at work and every time I look at it, I whisper "God is good."
