I must confess that I'm writing a story about a modern-day person who goes back in time to the "Arthurian Age", but I made my protagonist a time traveler for a much deeper reason - I hope. The story began one day in the month of May, when The Rape of Guinevere called together ten Knights of the Round Table.

Now Part the Third begins, with Tom being returned to the human world once. Unfortunately, Lady Ablamar saw Gawain about to strike the killing blow and dove in front of his sword, causing Gawain to behead her instead. Tom flees on a butterfly, but is captured and brought to trial. People are generally wrong.
